The adventure and recreational program facilities (Facilities) offered by the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) at The Summit Bechtel Family National Scout Reserve (The Summit) are designed to provide intense high adventure opportunities for participants. And while safety is of paramount concern in the Scouting program including at The Summit, there are risks in adventure and recreational activities which cannot be eliminated. Participants in the Adventure and recreational programs, therefore, must understand and acknowledge those risks and their responsibilities as participants.

West Virginia law requires participants in adventure and recreational activities to follow to all instructions and participate only in activities within their capabilities. Participants also assume the risk of injury or death which results from their participation. Persons desiring to use any of the Facilities at The Summit, and for persons under 18 a parent or guardian, must sign this written acknowledgement of the provisions of West Virginia law prior to using the Facilities. Serious injury or death can result from the mishandling of firearms or archery equipment.

Water activities can result in injuries or drowning due to loss of control, fatigue or being struck by out of control equipment.
- Hiking and Trek Experience to Garden Ground (the Summit of The Summit) – requires a vertical ascent of about 1,000 feet over several miles of improved trail. The trail is strenuous and requires participants to consume additional water to avoid dehydration.
